May 11, 2009

Vice Provost, Undergraduate Education

In accordance with the Personnel Policies for UC Staff Members (effective July 1, 1996) and a subsequent July 29, 1996 delegation of authority from the President to the Chancellors (DA 2070), I hereby re-delegate to you as Vice Provost – Undergraduate Education, in your areas of responsibility, the authority to permit a full-time employee appointed to a Professional and Support Staff position to receive an additional appointment for work in another department or in a different class in the same department provided that:

900 University Avenue
Riverside, CA 92521
Tel 951.827.5201
Fax 951.827.3866
www.ucr.edu

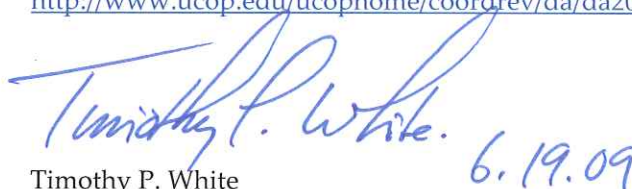

- it is impractical to employ another person;
- the additional appointment will not exceed a total of twelve calendar months;
- the time worked on the additional appointment will not be detrimental to the employee's performance; and
- the employee's full-time department head agrees to the arrangement.

This re-delegation is effective immediately and supersedes any prior delegation on this subject. This authority may not be re-delegated further.
