Re: Redlegation of Authority – Protection of Human and Animal Subjects

I hereby redelegate the authority delegated to Chancellors in the University Policy on the Protection of Human Subjects in Research, September 2, 1981, and the University Policy on the Use of Animals in Research and Teaching, October 15, 1984 in the following manner:

The Vice Chancellor for Research is redelegated the authority to oversee and administer all aspects of UCR's compliance programs regarding the use of animals in research and training, and the use of human subjects in research; to appoint all members of the respective compliance committees; and to act as the authorized institutional official for all matters related to UCR's compliance programs regarding the use of animals in research and training and the use of human subjects in research.

The Assistant Vice Chancellor for Research, Principal Contract and Grant Officers, Senior Contract and Grant Officers, Contract and Grant Officers and the Subaward Monitoring Coordinator are redelegated the authority to sign as the "authorized institutional official" on all documents pertaining to the protection of human and animal subjects related to extramural awards for research and training, including, but not limited to, assurances of compliance and reports to extramural sponsors that require the signature of an "authorized institutional official".

The Director of Research Integrity is redelegated the authority to sign as the "authorized institutional official" on institutional assurances of compliance to be submitted to governmental regulatory oversight bodies related to the use of animals in research and training, and the use of humans in research, as well as all documents pertaining to the protection of animal or human subjects not specifically related to research and training extramural awards.

Effective Date: November 1, 2006
