Dean, College of Natural and Agricultural Sciences

Delegation of Authority— Appointment of Natural Reserve System (NRS) Officers & Advisory Committee Members

Section 5 of the University of California NRS Administrative Handbook, dated October 2018, authorizes each Chancellor to appoint campus NRS administrative officers for all the reserves or reserve clusters assigned to their respective campus and to appoint individuals to their respective campus NRS advisory committees. Per the guidance provided, each Chancellor may re-delegate this authority.

Effective as of the date above, I hereby re-delegate to the Dean of the College of Natural and Agricultural Sciences (CNAS) the aforementioned authority. Accordingly, the campus NRS administrative officers will report to the CNAS Dean. The campus NRS advisory committee (Committee) will make recommendations to the CNAS Dean concerning potential additions to the NRS and the management and use of reserves assigned to the campus. The Committee will submit an annual activity report to the CNAS Dean and assume whatever other appropriate responsibilities are assigned by the CNAS Dean.

This delegation will remain in effect until rescinded in writing. It may not be re-delegated.

Sincerely,

Kim A. Wilcox
Chancellor
